

14 June 2016

Ambassador Okada visits the Queen's Park Judo Club

On 11 June, His Excellency Mitsuhiro Okada, Ambassador of Japan, visited the Queen's Park Judo Club (QPJC) in Cascade, Port of Spain, Trinidad, to observe the club's practice session. This prominent Trinidad and Tobago Judo club has approximately 50 members, both children and adults. Mr. Christopher George, the first Trinidad and Tobago Judo athlete to qualify for the Olympics, has also practiced at the QPJC as a member.

Ambassador Okada wished Mr. George every success in his representation of Trinidad and Tobago at the Rio de Janeiro Olympics.

Ambassador Okada observes practice
whil being briefed by Judo Instructor
Mr. Mark Littrean

Members of the QPJC
during their practice session

Ambassador Okada and Olympic qualifier,
Mr. Christopher George

Ambassador Okada stands with members of the QPJC