

Ambassador Okada's Feature Address at the University of the West Indies Diplomatic Dialogue

On 15 March, Ambassador Okada spoke on "Japan's Relations with the Caribbean in a Changing Global Environment" at the University of the West Indies (UWI) as Feature Speaker in the University's Diplomatic Dialogue.

The lecture room was full of students of UWI and visiting students of the Georgia Southern University, U.S.A; and a wide range of questions related to Japan, such as security, energy and culture, were raised during the question-and-answer session.

Feature Address by Ambassador Okada

With Dr. Mark Kirton, Director (Ag.), Institute of International Relations, UWI