

Ambassador Okada made a presentation at
“Disaster Management Symposium” in Tobago

On October 13th, His Excellency Mitsuhiro Okada, Ambassador of Japan, attended the Disaster Management Symposium held by JCI West Indies at Tobago Heritage Park, Pigeon Point, Tobago.

Ambassador Okada made a presentation titled “Lessons Learned from the Great East Japan Earthquake” and shared with representatives from Junior Chamber International in the Caribbean some of the lessons Japan learned from the catastrophic tsunamis.

Ambassador Okada made a presentation titled “Lessons Learned from the Great East Japan Earthquake”

Ambassador Okada and Councillor Kwesi Des Vignes, JCI West Indies National President

Presenters at the Symposium and key members of JCI West Indies