Ambassador Okada visits Mud House in Fyzabad

On September 2, His Excellency Mitsuhiro Okada, Ambassador of Japan, visited a preserved traditional mud house in Fyzabad. Ms. Andrea Bullock and her mother Mrs. Rajwantee Bullock briefed Ambassador Okada and Mrs. Okada on the history of the Mud House built in 1885 and traditional tools used for cocoa production. Ambassador Okada was met by Dr. Lackram P. Bodoie, M.P., one of the sponsors for the restoration of the Mud House.
