

9 February 2018

PRESS RELEASE

Visit by Ambassador Okada to Grenada

His Excellency Mitsuhiro Okada, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Japan, visited Grenada on February 6 - 7, 2018, to attend its independence celebration.

During his stay, Ambassador Okada held meetings with the Honourable Elvin Nimrod, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Foreign Affairs, Carriacou and Petite Martinique Affairs and Local Government, the Honourable Nikolas Steele, Minister for Health, Social Security and International Business, and the Honourable Alvin Da Breo, Minister in the Ministry of Agriculture, Lands, Forestry, Fisheries and the Environment to deliver his congratulatory remark on Grenada's 44th anniversary of independence and to discuss ways to further deepen the friendly relationship and economic cooperation between the two nations.

Ambassador Okada also visited the Melville Street Fish Market which was developed with the assistance of Japanese Grant Aid.

END

Honourable Alvin Da Breo and Ambassador Mitsuhiro Okada

Honourable Nikolas Steele and Ambassador Mitsuhiro Okada

Melville Street Fish Market at Saint George's

Independence Parade at the Grenada National Stadium