

Japanese Tea Ceremony Demonstration and Movie Screening

On October 14th, a Japanese Tea Ceremony demonstration and a Japanese movie screening were held at the National Museum and Art Gallery of Trinidad and Tobago in Port of Spain as part of the Japanese Embassy Exhibition titled “Nippon: An Experience of Japanese Culture”. The tea ceremony demonstration was conducted by Mrs. Mari Okada, wife of the Ambassador of Japan and was attended by His Excellency Mitsuhiro Okada, Ambassador of Japan as well as over 300 members of the public. More than 50 people could taste Japanese green tea. The Japanese movie featured the popular animation movie “Garden of Words” directed by Makoto Shinkai.
