

Presentation of Credentials

H.E. Mr. Teruhiko Shinada, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Japan to Barbados, presented his credentials to His Excellency Sir Elliot Belgrave, Governor General of Barbados on October 20th, 2016. He is the first resident Japanese Ambassador in Barbados.

After the ceremony, His Excellency Sir Elliot Belgrave, Governor General, expressed his appreciation to the Japanese government for cooperation in various fields, such as climate change and disaster countermeasures. He continued by stating that he would like to maintain and promote friendly relations between the two countries.

The Ambassador registering at the Governor General's office

Presentation of credentials to H. E. Sir Elliot Belgrave, Governor General

Ambassador talking with the Governor General

The Ambassador and his wife, and other Embassy diplomatic staff with the Governor General