

Visit by Ambassador Okada to Antigua and Barbuda

His Excellency Mitsuhiro Okada, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Japan, visited Antigua and Barbuda on October 31 - November 1, 2017, to attend its independence celebration. During his stay, Ambassador Okada held meetings with the Honourable Charles Henry Fernandez, Minister of Tourism, Foreign Affairs and Immigration, and the Honourable Arthur Nibbs, Minister of Agriculture, Lands, Fisheries and Barbuda Affairs, to express his sympathy for the plight caused by Hurricane Irma, and to discuss the friendly relationship and economic cooperation between the two nations.

Ambassador Okada and Minister Nibbs

Ambassador Okada and Minister Fernandez

At the Point Wharf Fisheries Complex